Profile

Michelle joined the IBJI rehab team in March of 2018. Michelle grew up in Highland Park and is very excited to be back in her hometown working with members of her community. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Community Health from Indiana University-Bloomington. After graduating, Michelle moved back to Chicago where she earned her Master's Degree in Occupational Therapy from Rush University.

Michelle enjoys treating a wide variety of diagnoses and working with individuals of all age groups. She is dedicated to providing the most effective and appropriate treatment to fit each individual's specific needs. Michelle values the open communication and collaboration between the therapists and the physicians at IBJI.

In her free time Michelle enjoys trying new restaurants and spending time with friends and family.
