Profile

Julee has been an Occupational Therapist in the Chicagoland area since 1988 after graduating from the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, SC. She became a Certified Hand Therapist in 1994 and has worked exclusively in outpatient clinics focusing on upper extremity orthopedic diagnoses since 1992. Julee's practice focuses on shoulder through hand rehabilitation and educating Occupational Therapists. Her wide experience allows her to treat patients of all ages and diagnoses from arthritis to traumatic injuries. She is a member of the American Society of Hand Therapists.

Julee is passionate about learning her patient's stories and helping them through a difficult time in their lives.

In Julee's spare time she plays the clarinet, quilts and enjoys time with friends and family.
