Profile

Josh joined the IBJI team in January 2020. Originally from Glen Ellyn, IL, he earned his Bachelor's degree in Biopsychology, Cognition and Neuroscience from the University of Michigan. He then moved back to Illinois to pursue his Doctorate degree in Physical Therapy at Rosalind Franklin University, graduating in May 2017.

Josh has worked as a traveling PT all across the country, treating patients throughout the entire continuum of care from outpatient orthopedics to acute inpatient rehabilitation. Given his diverse experiences, he enjoys working with patients with a variety of orthopedic and neurological disorders. As an avid weightlifter, he is most passionate about helping his patients get strong while teaching them how to self manage their condition and promote self efficacy and independence.
