

Taylor Steele, PT, DPT

Physical Therapist

Profile

Taylor Steele, PT, DPT joined IBJI after receiving her Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science in 2022. While in school she gained clinical experience in various settings, including outpatient orthopedic clinics, industrial rehabilitation, and pediatric physical therapy. She is passionate about helping her patients get back to the activities they enjoy and loves encouraging them along the way.

Taylor grew up in Louisiana and Texas and still loves going back to visit family and eat all of the southern comfort food she can. In her free time, she likes reading, getting active outside, and meeting new people.
