Profile

Courtney joined the IBJI team in January of 2020. Originally from Lincolnshire, IL she earned her Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology: Exercise and Movement Science at the University of Wisconsin- Madison. She then pursued her Doctorate degree in Physical Therapy at Rosalind Franklin University and graduated in May of 2017.

Courtney decided to begin her career as a traveling physical therapist and has been traveling across the country for the past 2.5 years working in both inpatient and outpatient settings and treating patients with a variety of orthopedic and neurological conditions.

As a former athlete and a certified strength and conditioning specialist, she enjoys treating patients with a variety of orthopedic conditions. She enjoys educating her patient's on self management of their condition in order to restore function, reduce pain, and promote independence. In her free time, she loves to work out, try new restaurants, and travel.
