Profile

Rachel received her doctorate in occupational therapy from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska in May of 2018. Rachel completed clinical rotations in a variety of settings including pediatrics and inpatient rehabilitation, but is most passionate about working with individuals in an outpatient setting. She developed an interest in rehabilitation of the upper extremity and fabricating custom orthoses following a specialty clinical rotation in this setting.

Rachel is a member of the American Occupational Therapy Association and the American Society of Hand Therapists. Rachel received her Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
