Profile

Sara began her career as an Occupational Therapist in 2011 after receiving her Master's degree from the University of Illinois in Chicago. Since then she has worked in Ohio, Illinois, and North Carolina in a variety of settings with both children and adults. In 2019 she completed a hand therapy fellowship program at the OrthoCarolina Hand Center, where she advanced her skills and knowledge as a specialty provider of orthopedic upper extremity and hand rehabilitation services. She values being part of a team, working closely with patients, families, and physicians to help patients achieve their maximum functional outcomes.

When she's not at work, Sara enjoys traveling, hiking, going to concerts, movies and the theatre.
